

The Premier League has ramped up its spending after the pandemic and a new TV deal

While disparities in spending reached new heights in 2023 with the Premier League breaching the 3 billion mark

